

5th March 2020

9.30	Registration and refreshments
10.00	Anita Hollinshead , Regional Collections Adviser for MDEM - welcome and review of the regional collections programme
10.20	Dr Lynda Skipper , Senior Lecturer, Conservation Department, University of Lincoln - Conservation of Cultural Heritage at the University of Lincoln (including the new degree apprenticeship in conservation)
10.40	Paul Croft , Research Fellow, Lincoln Conservation - The role of digital replication in the reinstatement of an early 20th century ceiling
11.00	Phil Hackett , Resources Manager, Leicester Arts, Museums, Festivals & Events - A Collections Review: Il buono, Il brutto, Il cattivo
11.20	Break - refreshments available
11.40	Jane Thompson Webb , Conservation Team Leader, Birmingham Museums Trust - Have you got this one? Exploring recent insect pest activity in museums
12.20	Anna Rhodes , Project Officer, Buxton Museum and Art Gallery - Proactive Disposals – Re-homing the Derbyshire Schools Library Service collections
12.40	Gillian Smithson , Gallery & Museum Registrar, The Whitworth and Manchester Museum, The University of Manchester - Give & Take: Unconditional Return of Secret and Sacred objects
13:15	Lunch
14.00	Dr Janet Owen , Executive Director of the Earth Museum - Dynamic collections and place making
14:15	Delegates will be split into 4 groups to rotate between 4 different 25 minute sessions: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Tour of University laboratories – led by Chris Robinson, Associate Lecturer, Conservation Department, University of Lincoln 2) Tour of the Lincoln Conservation lab – led by Paul Croft, Lincoln Conservation 3) 'Dynamic collections and place making' Dr Janet Owen, Executive Director Earth Museum, Eleanor Baumber, Public Engagement Manager, Lincolnshire County Council, Carolyn Melbourne, Museum and Collections Officer, D.H. Lawrence Birthplace Museum (LPAC Theatre) 4) Pest identification and networking - Jane Thompson-Webb will be available with a microscope to answer enquiries and undertake identifications on pests. Tea and coffee will be available from the bar during this session
16.20	Delegates return to LPAC Theatre for closing remarks
16.30	Symposium Closes